*A Message from Principal
Snellenberger*

Welcome back to all our EES families and learning partners! It was so great to see your kiddos arrive back to school this week, well rested and eager to learn. Although it was a short week, it sure felt like a long one! Getting back into the habit and routine of school schedules can be challenging, but the blue skies and sunshine does seem to make it a little easier. I hope you can all make it out next week to our school's production of "Finding Nemo" as well as the Scholastic Book Fair; I think you'll find them both rewarding and entertaining!

In partnership,
Kolby Snellenberger

Don't forget to "spring forward" on Sunday, March 10th!
